Twenty Dollars Reward.
RUNAWAY FROM
THE subscriber near Athens, Monroe county, Mississippi, on the 4th January, 1838, a negro man called HARRY, about twenty-eight or thirty years old, dark complexion, about five feet ten inches high, one of his upper or under four teeth out, his right hand has been injured with cotton gin, has a small scar in his forehead, near the edge of his hair, had on when he left, a dark woolen hunting shirt, white cotton pantaloons, and old worn shoes. He will probably attempt to go to Williamson county, near Memphis, where he was raised. I will give twenty dollars reward for his apprehension and confinement in jail, so that I can get him.

Jan. 27, 1838—23-1

Montague's Balm.
An Indian remedy for the Tooth-Ache.

THE established reputation and constantly increasing demand for this effectual remedy of pain and preservative of the teeth, has induced the subscriber to offer it to the American public. Arrangements have been made to supply agents in all the principal cities and towns in the United States, so as to place it within the reach of those suffering and likely to suffer with this most harassing of all Aches—Tooth-Ache.

When applied according to directions given on the bottle, it has never failed to afford immediate and permanent relief. It also arrests the decay in defective teeth, and relieves the soreness which so frequently renders a strong tooth useless. The application and remedy are simple, innocent, and not unpleasant; and the large number of persons in different sections of the country, that have already experienced such delightful and salutary effects from the use of the Balm, are ready to bear, (for the public good,) their testimony to its unrivaled qualities. It is an Indian remedy obtained singularly and unexpectedly, and may be regarded by the civilized world as the most valuable discovery of the Red man of the Woods.

Anti-Spa-modic Tincture, or

MOTHER'S COMFORT. This medicine has been prepared with special reference to the wants of families, in which the most minute particulars have been observed, in order that mothers might keep and use it with the most perfect safety, and with the confident assurance that it will relieve when very many of the standard remedies fail. The proprietor, before offering it to the public, has taken occasion to converse with some distinguished physicians of Virginia, and with special pains to speak of all the various parts and proportions of this medicine; and those that know its component parts, have pronounced it one of the very best compounds for the following diseases that can be prepared, and may be used with perfect safety, as well with the new born babe, as the man of three score and ten. If those that use it are not satisfied that it is the very best remedy for the diseases here enumerated, they can return the bottle and receive back their money. It is boldly asserted that it is almost (if not quite) infallible in Diarrhea in all its various forms, Dysentery, Cramp-colic, Cholera Morbus, and Asiatic Cholera; also, After Pains of lying-in Females—for this it is the Mother's Comfort, and because it is the very best preparation for the summer diseases of children that has yet entered the chamber of the distressed. It is also unequalled for cramps from whatever cause produced. Ladies in the most delicate situations may take it under any of the above circumstances with perfect safety and equal benefit. The public may be assured that the Anti-Spa-modic Tincture, or Mother's Comfort, has been subjected to the most rigid and scientific examination by some of the most extensive (physicians) practitioners in Virginia, who now recommend it in their practice.

ROBERT C. BAILEY and WILLIS A. FARRIS.

IN this case the complainant by his counsel, and it appearing to the court that process has been regularly served upon the defendant Robert C. Bailey, and he having failed to plead, answer or demur the said bill of complaint; Wherefore, motion of the said complainant by his counsel, is considered by the court that the said bill of complaint as to the said Robert C. Bailey be taken for confessed, and it further appearing to the court, that an order of publication was made at the last term of this court against Willis A. Farris has not been published: Wherefore, it is ordered by the court, that publication be made for the term of three months in the Columbus Democrat, a newspaper printed in the town of Columbus in this state, requiring the said Willis A. Farris to appear before the next Circuit Court to be holden for the county of Monroe, at the Court House in Athens on the 4th Monday of April next, then and there to plead, answer or demur to the said bill of complaint, otherwise that the same be taken for confessed, and set over for hearing ex parte against both the defendants, on the 1st January, 1838.

To all whom it may Concern:
HAVING disposed of our entire stock of merchandise with a view of closing our business, this notice is given so as to give all disposed to arrange debts due the following concerns, a chance to settle the same without attaching the additional expense of the law: The old concern of W. A. Clump & Co.; that of W. O. Cook & Co. and that of Cook & Walton. We hope no debtor after this notice will be backward in arranging his debts with us, as we are driven to this course as a last alternative. We owe money, and money we must have to make our own creditors easy. We sincerely hope that we will not have to sue our customers, as it would be very unpleasant to us; but we are compelled to have money.

People's Line of Stages for Augusta
NOTICE TO TRAVELLERS GOING NORTH:
This splendid line of four horse post coaches is in successful operation, and runs daily between Montgomery, Alabama, and Augusta, Georgia. Passengers can be assured of more comfort and expedition by this line than any other now running to Augusta. The company have spared neither pains nor expense to procure the best Troy built coaches, excellent and well trained horses, experienced, sober and careful drivers.

To avoid imposition repeatedly practiced on the travelling community by contractors at all times encasing a monopoly, passengers will be careful going North not to take their passage farther than Montgomery, on any other intersecting line, where they will at all times have a preference on the People's line for Augusta.

This line runs 45 miles on the Augusta and Albany rail road, which will land passengers in Augusta ahead of the mail line several hours.

U. S. Magazine and Democratic Review.

IT has long been apparent to many of the reflecting members of the Democratic Party of the United States, that a periodical for the advocacy and diffusion of their political principles, similar to those in which active and influential operations in England, is a desideratum which it is very important to supply—a periodical which should unite with the attractions of a sound and vigorous literature, a political character, capable of giving sufficient support to the doctrines and measures of that party. Presenting by a large majority of the people, the country, expanding and advocating the Democratic doctrine through the most able pens that that party can furnish, in articles of great length, more condensed forces, more elaborate research, and more elevated tones, than is possible for the newspaper press, a Magazine of this character becomes an instrument of inappreciable value for the enlightenment and formation of public opinion, and for the support of the principles which it advocates. By these means, by thus explaining and defending the measures of the great Democratic Party, and by always furnishing to the public a clear and powerful commentary upon those complex questions of policy and party which so frequently distract the country, and upon which, imperfectly understood as they are even by friends, and misapprehended and distorted as they are ever liable to be by political opponents, it is of the utmost importance that the public should be thoroughly and correctly informed, it is hoped that the periodical in question may be made to exert a beneficial, rational, and lasting influence on the public mind.

Other considerations, which cannot be too highly appreciated, will render the establishment and success of the proposed Magazine of very great importance.

In the nightly struggle of antagonist principles which is now going on in society, the democratic party of the United States stands committed to the world as the depository and exemplar of those cardinal doctrines of political faith with which the cause of the People in every age and country is identified. Chiefly from the want of a convenient means of concentrating the intellectual energies of its describers, this party has hitherto been almost wholly unrepresented in the republic's letters, while the views and policy of its opposing creeds, are daily advocated by the ablest and most commanding elegants of genius and learning.

In the United States Magazine the attempt will be made to remedy this reproach.

The present is the time peculiarly appropriate for the commencement of such an undertaking. The democratic body of the Union, after a conflict which tested to the utmost its stability and its principles, have succeeded in retaining possession of the executive administration of the country. In the consequent comparative repose from political strife, the period is auspicious for organizing and calling to its aid a new and powerful aid of this character, interfering with none and co-operating with all.

Co-ordinate with this main design of the United States Magazine, no care nor cost will be spared to render it, in a literary point of view, honorable to the country; and it to cope in vigor of rivalry with its European competitors. Viewing the English language as the noble heritage and common birthright of all who speak the tongue of Milton and Shakespeare, it will be the uniform object of its conductors to present out the finest productions in the various branches of literature, that can be procured; and to diffuse the benefit of correct models of taste and worthy execution.

In this department the exclusiveness of party, which is inseparable from the political department of such a work, will have no place. Here we will stand on a neutral ground of equality and reciprocity, where these universal principles of taste to which we are all alike subject, will alone be recognized as the common law. Our political principles cannot be compromised, but our common literature it will be our common pride to cherish and extend, with a liberality of feeling unbias by partial or minor views.

As the United States Magazine is founded on the broadest basis which the means and influence of the democratic party in the United States can present, it is intended to render it in every respect a thoroughly National Work, not merely designed for ephemeral interest and sensation, but to continue of permanent historical value. With this view a considerable portion of each number will be appropriated to the following subjects, in addition to the general features referred to above.

A general summary of political and of domestic intelligence, digested in the order of the States, comprising all the authentic important facts of the preceding month.

General literary intelligence, domestic and foreign.
General scientific intelligence, including agricultural improvements, a notice of all new patents, &c.
A condensed account of all new works of improvement throughout the Union.

Military and naval news, promotions, changes, movements, &c.

Biographical obituary notices of distinguished persons.

After the close of each session of Congress, an extra or enlarged number will be published containing a general review and history of its proceedings, as condensed, abstract of important official documents, and the acts of the session.

To promote the popular diffusion of views, and relying upon the united support of the democratic party, as well as from others, the price of subscribers is fixed at the low rate of Five Dollars per annum; while in mechanical arrangements, and in size, quality of matter, &c. the United States Magazine will be placed on a par at least with the leading monthly of England. The whole will form three large octavo volumes each year.

The subscription will be in all cases payable in advance, (for the first year only) six dollars on the delivery of the third number. The absolute necessity of this rule in such an establishment will be obvious to all.

In return for a remittance of $50, eleven copies will be sent; for $100, twenty-three copies. The certificate of a postmaster of the remittance of a sum of money will be a sufficient receipt, all dangers of the mail being at the risk of the publishers.

All communications will be addressed, post paid, to the undersigned, the publishers.
